Thank you for your interest in Austinites.

We are very excited about the store and our chance to work with you. Austinites is a retail store dedicated to promoting your product because you are a Texan and an Austinite! As a small background, we are starting the business for the little guy. We have no problem with American business, but after so many years of economic struggle and bailout mentality, we thought, we have to do something. They say the current recession will be rectified in large part by American entrepreneurship, and frankly this is our best attempt. So, we are here to support you.

Undoubtedly you have a name brand competitor. And its also likely that today you have not been able to get into a large retail environment. Our goal is to help get you there. Give you a retail presence where you are center stage, where there is no national competitor next to you. And maybe we can help you accomplish your goals and of course share in your success.

To help us out, please answer the following....

1. Please describe in a few sentences what you produce?
2. Please describe in a few sentences why you made your product, whats your story?
3. Who is your competitor?
4. Why are you better?
5. How much volume (either sales or number of products)? Specifics not necessary.
6. Do you wholesale, consign, or both?
7. If so, where are you placed today?

We look forward to continuing the discussion!

Respectfully,

David Morales, Austinite
